Hansen is a long time journeyman sheet metal worker, who when not working or volunteering for the LMCB, builds custom vehicles, and works on his collection of muscle cars and hot rods.

Percy Tam: Treasurer

Percy holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree in Accounting from the University of British Columbia. Percy attained his CPA, CA designation from KPMG in Vancouver and has over ten years of experience in accounting and finance.

Prior to joining the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau, Percy worked with local high schools and non-profit organizations to promote financial literacy for youth in the Lower Mainland.

As the Treasurer, Percy hopes to contribute to the best of his ability to the LMCB as it continues to carry on its mission of serving the local community in helping to make Christmas complete for every family.

Areet Kaila: Secretary

Areet joined the Board of Directors in 2016 and is an associate of the firm Clark Wilson LLP practicing in the areas of taxation, corporate structuring, and estate planning. Areet also has experience assisting charitable organizations with registration, tax compliance and structuring matters.

Areet received her Bachelor of Commerce in Marketing from the University of British Columbia in 2006 and obtained her Bachelor of Laws degree (with distinction) from the University of Alberta in 2010. She was called to the British Columbia Bar in June 2011.

Grace Cheung: Director

Christmas is Grace's favourite time of the year - one of that she had treasured and valued since childhood. It is also a time when families have the opportunity to gather to create wonderful memories that last a lifetime. As a Director of the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau, Grace hopes to be able to help create such opportunities for families in need.

Grace holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the Sauder School of Business at UBC. She achieved her CPA, CA designation in 2014 while working at EY. Since then, she's worked in the gaming, finance and real estate industries.

Keith Morgan: Director

Keith's journalism career stretched back to 1975, when he joined The Blackpool Evening Gazette in the UK, his hometown newspaper. He moved to Vancouver in 1980, beginning a 34-year-career with The Province/Vancouver Sun, first as a reporter and then quickly taking on the crime beat. Latterly he created such specialty sections as Driving and Sunday Homes.

The multiple-award-winner has authored two books, made regular TV appearances, hosted radio talk shows and scripted a traffic safety quiz show for prime-time TV.

Keith has donated his creative abilities to the United Way and the Coast Foundation's Courage to Come Back Awards. Back in the 1990s he revamped the Empty Stocking Fund for The Province and became its representative at the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau. In his return, Keith pledges to help develop the bureau's marketing and communications strategy.

Warren Mui: Director

Warren has a heart for making an impact in his community. He is part of the fundraising team at the BC Lung Association and is also on the Board of Directors at the Vancouver Dodgeball League. Volunteering is a big part of his life and where he has spent so much of his time. His desire and goal at the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau is to make a difference to families in the community at such an important time of the year.

Leah Nguyen: Director

Leah joined the LMCB Board of Directors in 2016, and is excited to help the LMCB spread Christmas cheer in the communities it serves. She is an experienced management professional with over thirteen years of experience in multiple industries across Canada

Darya Sawycky: Director

Darya is passionate about the meaning of Christmas and the joy of children. She was introduced to the importance of charitable giving and the value of giving back to her community as a young child. This foundational lesson included an annual December shopping trip with her Mom to the mall in Waterloo, Ontario, to choose and donate gifts for children in need through the support of the local Christmas Bureau.

Darya has carried these values through to her career, where she has spent close to twenty years in the fundraising profession, building relationships with inspirational donors to raise millions of dollars in support of charities in the social services, health, and education fields. She is currently Associate Director of Development at the University of British Columbia with a focus on creating strategic philanthropic partnerships at the $25,000+ level. Darya is a member of the Canadian Association of Gift Planners and holds an Honours Bachelor of Science from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario.

She is honoured to serve as Board Director and to contribute her time and talents to the wonderful work being done by the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau and its generous supporters.

Make a Financial Donation		Thank you for joining our community of supporters that began in 1930, almost 90 years ago! Your support of the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau will help to create a meaningful impact in empowering families in need to create Christmas experiences for their kids through the generosity of community. Your support makes a wonderful difference Last year, because of the generous contributions from our supporters, the LMCB helped close to 1,000 low-income families in Vancouver and provided gifts to almost 2,000 kids. In addition, the kindness of all the monetary and toy donations enabled us to distribute over 100,000 toys to bureaus and agencies across the Lower Mainland. [ideally we have an infographic of sorts to show our impact vs. just a block of text]

Donate Toys and Gifts		The Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau accepts new toys, that are not gift-wrapped, gift items and cash donations. There is a larger need for gifts for tweens and teens. We try to limit the number of stuffed toys received as our warehouse is already overflowing with their cuteness. We accept donations all year round.
